Ход урока

1. Приглашение учащихся в Музей Изящных Искусств им. П. И. Басманова
2. Рассказ учащегося о творчестве П. И. Басманова

Pavel Ivanovich Basmanov was born in the village Batalovo (Altai region) on the 3d of January in 1906. His family was large. He liked drawing since childhood and dreamt of becoming an artist.

After finishing school he entered Barnaul art college. Then he graduated from St. Petersburg Art college.

He started his career as an illustrator colouring books for children. He illustrated books for children. He liked painting landscapes, portraits and genre scenes. He painted both in water colours and in oil. He mostly used four main colours: blue, red, soft brown and green. All his works are penetrated with light. He portrayed children, men, women and girls showing their work in the fields. We see the vast expanses of Russian fields. He often enlivens the landscape by a group of peasants, country people and animals. So, his landscapes are full of life.

He is famous for the simplicity and clarity of his artistic language. Some of his pictures are exhibited in the Tretyakov Gallery and in the Russian museum.

Учитель:
